

LOROL – London Overground

LOROL is the Train Operating Company (TOC) responsible for running the London Overground network which it does under a Concession Agreement with Transport for London (TfL). London Overground operates services between Richmond and Stratford via Willesden Junction, together with the Willesden Junction/Clapham Junction and Gospel Oak/Barking lines.

Onboard services

- Standard Class only
- Seat reservation not possible

